

Wisconsin's No Call List/Legislation works just fine and needs no interference from Federal Regulators. If my Bank or any other company I choose to do business with wishes to keep me as a customer, they can provide the services I require in a timely and efficient manner. Once I choose to end a given relationship it will be because I am no longer satisfied with the services provided. Now, why in the world would I want to hear from them via some telemarketing scheme for some 18 months afterwards?

The answer is simple, I would not! I am one who hates being bothered by repeated calls for services I no longer wish to avail myself of. Stay out of our lives and leave us alone because those who govern the least, govern the best.

Have a nice day! Sincerely, Ric Stowell
